

PRACTICE DIRECTION NO. 3A OF 2003

CHANGE OF EFFECTIVE DATE FOR
ENHANCEMENTS TO ELECTRONIC FILING FOR PROBATE PROCEEDINGS

Enhancements to the Electronic Filing Service (“EFS”) for probate and administration proceedings in the High Court were due to be rolled out together with the EFS modules for Divorce and Probate in the Subordinate Courts on 14 April 2003. Practice Direction No 3 of 2003 had set out the procedure to be complied with in respect of petitions for probate, letters of administration or resealing of grants filed in the High Court on or after 14 April 2003.

2 As the roll out date for the EFS modules for Divorce and Probate for the Subordinate Courts has been deferred, the roll out date for enhancements to the EFS for probate and administration proceedings in the High Court will be similarly deferred.

3 The effective date of 14 April 2003 for Practice Direction No 3 of 2003 will accordingly be deferred to a future date to be announced.

4 This Practice Direction should be included in The Supreme Court Practice Directions (1997 Ed.) immediately before the first page of the table of contents.

Dated this 8th day of April 2003.
