

Who Will Be in Court ?

For all those who need help
To tell their story

Your voice is important
To all of us

This publication is a joint effort of 4 organisations.

State Courts 1 Havelock Square Singapore 059724 contact@statecourts.gov.sg statecourts.gov.sg	Hagar Singapore Ltd 8 Lorong 27A Geylang #03-04, Singapore 388106 singapore@hagarinternational.org hagar.org.sg	Community Justice Centre 1 Havelock Square Singapore 059724 help@cjc.org.sg cjc.org.sg	NUS Centre for Pro Bono & Clinical Legal Education NUS Faculty of Law 469A Bukit Timah Road #07-01 Tower Block Singapore 259770 probono@nus.edu.sg law.nus.edu.sg/probono
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Who Will Be in Court ?

Copyright © 2018 State Courts & Hagar Singapore Ltd

Adapted from Who Will Be in Court? Originally produced by Hagar International in conjunction with UNICEF.

Modified for use in Singapore with drawings by Jolie Lim, colouring and digital layout by Wileen Saw.

KBBubblegum font used with the kind permission of Khrys Bosland of Fort Myers, Florida, USA.

All rights reserved. Printed in Singapore.

These materials may be freely used.

For enquiries and further adaptation, contact any of the partner organisations involved in this project.

ISBN 978-981-11-8954-8

Who Will Be in Court ?

The Judge

Page 1

The Court Officer

Page 5

The Accused

Page 9

The Police

Page 11

The Prosecutor

Page 3

The Defence Counsel

Page 7

The Witnesses

Page 13

The Social Worker

Page 15

The Judge

- ★ Hears everyone's story and fits the pieces together like a puzzle to understand what happened.
- ★ Decides whether the Accused is guilty of breaking the law.
- ★ Will sometimes ask the witnesses questions.
- ★ Wears a black robe.
- ★ Is called "Your Honour" by everyone.

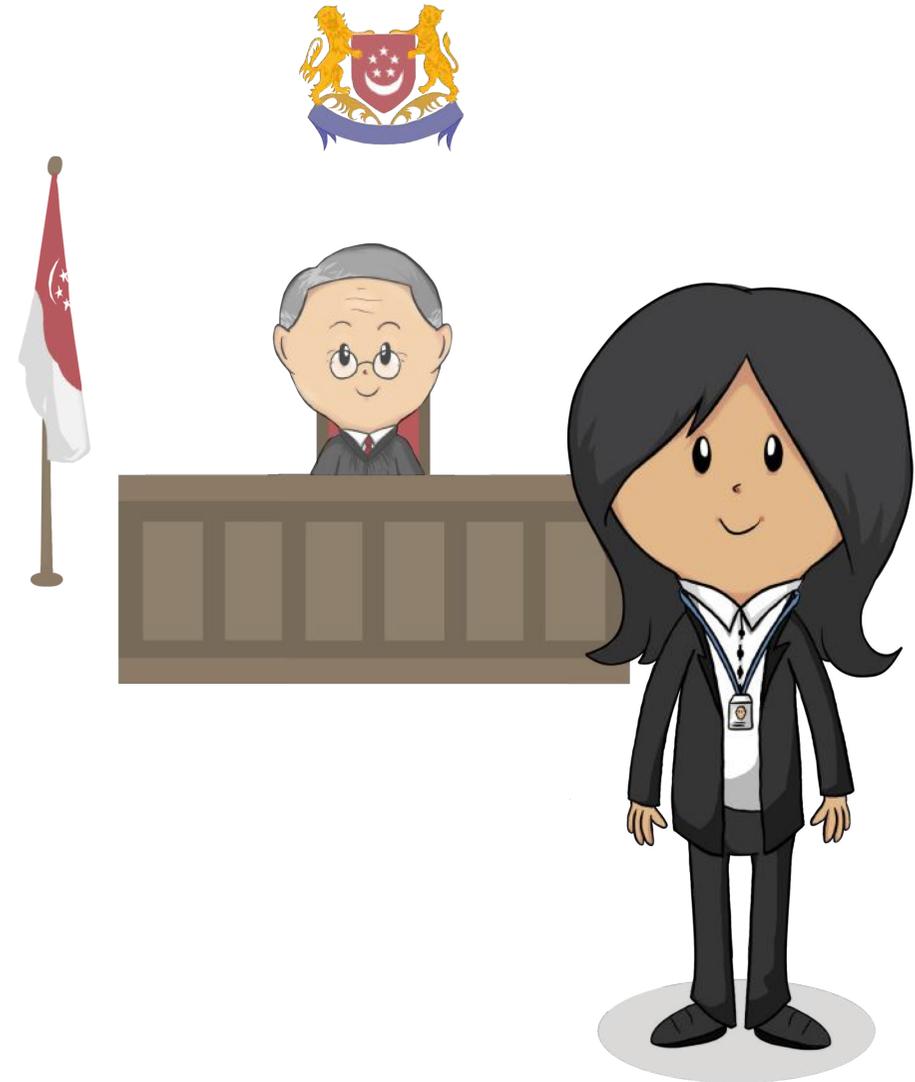

The Prosecutor

- ★ Tries to show the Accused broke the law.
- ★ Asks the witnesses questions so they can tell their story.
- ★ Wears a black robe in the High Court, but not in the State Courts.

The Court Officer

- ★ Helps the Judge.
- ★ Sits closest to the Judge.
- ★ Brings things to the Judge.

The Defence Counsel

- ★ A lawyer who helps the Accused
- ★ Gives the Accused advice.
- ★ Asks the witnesses questions to test that their story is true.
- ★ Wears a black robe in the High Court, but not in the State Courts.

The Accused

- ★ The person the police have charged for breaking the law.
- ★ Must be in Court during the whole trial.

The Police

- ★ Keeps everyone safe in Court.
- ★ Wears a blue uniform.

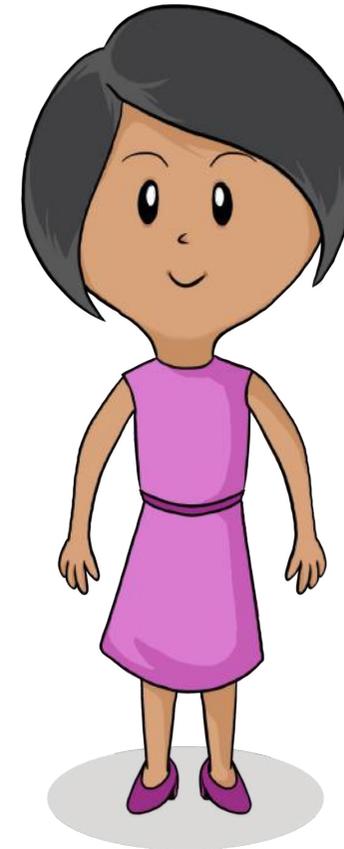

The Witnesses

- ★ Sit in front of the Judge and tell their side of the story.
- ★ Can include the person the Accused hurt.
- ★ Will be asked questions by the Prosecutor and Defence Counsel.
- ★ Must do their best to tell the truth.

The Social Worker

- ★ Helps a witness who needs extra help or support.
- ★ Brings the witness to Court.
- ★ May sit next to the witness as long as the witness needs help.

Accused

Police Officer

Defence Counsel

Judge

Court Officer

Prosecutor

Witness

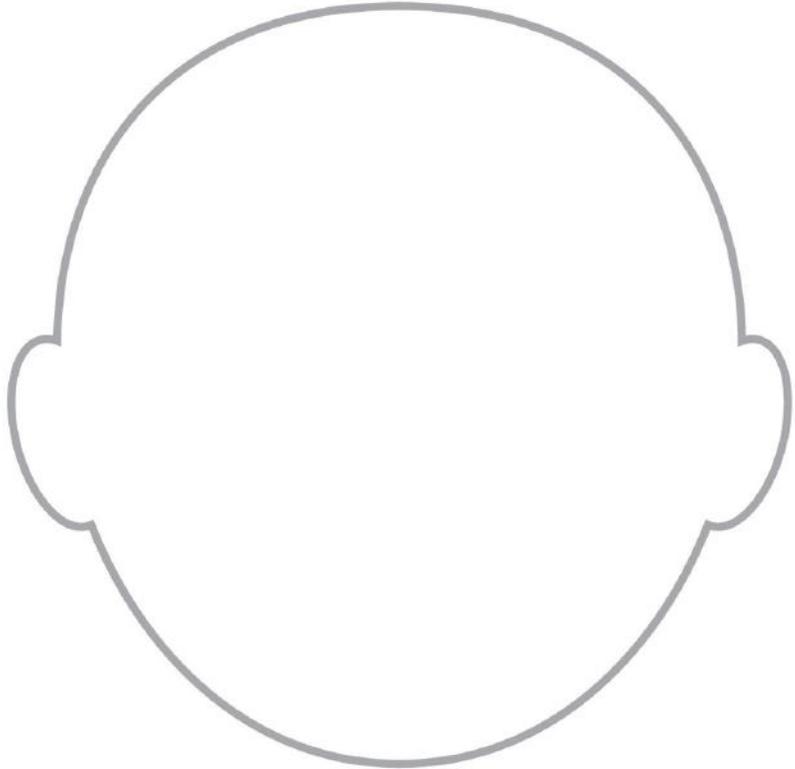

Social Worker

Draw how you are feeling

NOTES

Information for Caregivers and Social Workers

This book is the joint effort of 4 organisations in Singapore to support all who work with vulnerable witnesses as they navigate the criminal justice process, especially criminal trials.

Further materials are being developed. Check the websites of the partner organisations if you would like to receive these or additional materials when they are available.

Credits

The original book was developed by Hagar International in conjunction with UNICEF, and this book was adapted from that original material with permission from Hagar International.

This work is the product of the joint efforts of many, including the Criminal Justice Club of the NUS Faculty of Law, a student-run organisation that focuses on access to justice.

The characters in this book were drawn by Jolie Lim, a student from Pathlight School. She is lively, bright, vivacious and very talented. Many of Jolie's works appear on bags, T-shirts, notebooks and various other items. Her work can be seen and purchased from the Art Faculty at the Enabling Village, or Mustard Tree, a delightful shop at Ng Teng Fong General Hospital.

HAGAR
The whole journey

Centre for Pro Bono
& Clinical Legal Education
Faculty of Law