PART 2 – FOR ACCREDITED MEDIA / JOURNALISTS

NOTICE

The completed Request together with all necessary supporting documentation is to be submitted via go.gov.sg/writetosgcourts

After approval is obtained for inspection, please proceed to the CrimsonLogic Service Bureau to file Part 1 and 2 via eLitigation. Although the Registry endeavours to process any filed document in eLitigation as soon as we are in receipt, you will in all likelihood only be able to inspect the file at the Service Bureau within 3 working days.

Accordingly, please inform us of any urgency in your request to inspect so that we may try to expedite the processing of your request.

Inspection of non-electronic case files will take place at the Registry counter.

GENTLE REMINDER

The State Courts wish to remind journalists of their obligations in relation to fair and accurate reporting of Court cases. In particular, the grant of a request for inspection of a Court file should not be taken as a sanction by the State Courts that all information obtained from the file inspection may be reported or published. Kindly seek the necessary legal advice to ensure that the reporting of the case does not run afoul of the law, including the law of contempt. Thank you.
