

Home

Virtual Exchange with the Singapore Judicial College

Although international travel is on pause due to the coronavirus pandemic, the Center continues its work with the judiciaries of other nations via technology. During a two-day virtual workshop with judges and judicial educators from Singapore, Center staff delivered sessions on curriculum development, interactive teaching, and instructional technologies.